

Spirit Day

What is Spirit Day?

LGBTQIA2SP+ youth disproportionately face bullying and harassment because of their identities. Each year, millions go purple for Spirit Day to support LGBTQIA2SP+ youth in a united stand against bullying. Pledging to "go purple" on Spirit Day is a way for everyone — global and local brands and companies, world leaders, celebrities, neighbors, parents, classmates, and friends — to visibly show solidarity with youth and to take part in the largest, most visible LGBTQIA2SP+ anti-bullying campaign in the world. Spirit Day was started in 2010 by Canadian teenager Brittany McMillan.

Don't have purple?

If you don't have any purple clothes
(as is true for many us), you can wear rainbow or try to get someone who dosen't know about Spirit Day to wear purple. Another alternative can be working to educate yourself and those around you.

What's the differance and what do they mean?

LGBTQ+, LGBTQIA+, and LGBTQIA2SP+ are all varios ways of refering to the Queer community. The Queer community includes anyone who is not only attracted to people of the opposite gender, and anyone who does not feel 100% like the gender the were assigned at birth. The gender you were assigned at birth was given to you when you were born when a doctor/midwife looks at the infant you's body/anatomy and says you are a boy, girl or intersex.
